Both Parties shall maintain close communication and mutually provide and exchange available information that will be directly relevant to the fulfillment of the terms and conditions of this AGREEMENT.

ARTICLE 8

TERMINATION

8.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or implied elsewhere in this AGREEMENT, either DUKE or TALEVERAS shall (without prejudice to any other rights available hereunder) terminate this AGREEMENT by giving one hundred and twenty (120) days written notice to the other Party in the event that:

i) the financial reliability of either party becomes unsatisfactory; or

ii) either Party has committed a breach of this AGREEMENT; or

iii) the Exchange Contract Appendix -7 is terminated.

8.2 This AGREEMENT may be terminated by either Party without prior notice if the other Party becomes insolvent or bankrupt, or goes into liquidation (except for purposes of re-organization) or has insolvency, bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings being commenced against it, or enters into an arrangement with its creditors or committee of inspection of its creditors for the purpose of performance of its obligations under this AGREEMENT.
8.3 Either DUKE or TALEVERAS may terminate this AGREEMENT by service of thirty (30) days written notice to the other, if any unforeseen event or circumstance outside the reasonable control of the Parties (Force Majeure) occurs and it is impossible for both or either Party to perform its contractual obligations under this AGREEMENT for more than thirty (30) consecutive days.

8.4 The termination of this AGREEMENT shall be without prejudice to the rights of the Parties accrued prior to or as a result of such termination. Upon the termination of this AGREEMENT, the Parties shall be discharged from further performance, without prejudice to the rights of either Party in respect of any previous breach of the terms of this AGREEMENT or payment of any AGREEMENT which has accrued prior to and up to the date of termination.

ARTICLE 9
SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES AND GOVERNING LAW

9.1 The parties shall resolve all disputes, controversies and claims arising out of, relating to, or in connection with this AGREEMENT amicably. Where there is failure to reach an amicable resolution, either Party shall have the right to refer the matter to arbitration under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act Cap19 Laws of the Federation, 1990 and any amendments made thereto.

9.2 Within thirty (30) days of the matter being referred to arbitration, either Party shall appoint an arbitrator and the two arbitrators thus appointed shall within fifteen (15) days appoint a third arbitrator, if the arbitrators do not agree on the appointment of such third arbitrator, or if either Party fails to appoint the arbitrator to be appointed by it, such arbitrator shall be appointed by the Federal High Court, Abuja on the application of either Party to the Chief Judge of the Federal High Court. The notice of the intention to apply to the Court shall be duly given in writing by the applicant Party and when appointed (in the case of a third arbitrator) the third arbitrator shall convene meetings and acts as the chairman.

9.3 The award of the arbitrators shall, except where there is error in law or fact or miscarriage of justice, be conclusive and binding on all the Parties and may be entered as an award or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction and any such award shall not include consequential, indirect cost, punitive award, exemplary awards or any other damages other than direct damages (excluding the fees of each Party's attorney and the costs of Parties representations at the proceedings). The costs of arbitration shall be borne equally bin the Parties.

9.5 The venue of the arbitration shall be in Abuja and the applicable laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria shall be the governing laws for the determination of the issues arising under the arbitration. The language of the arbitration shall be English.

9.6 Nothing in this Article shall be construed as preventing any Party from seeking conservatory or similar interim relief from any court of competent jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 10
GOVERNING LAW
directors, officers or affiliates) in connection with or in relation to this AGREEMENT shall be confidential.

Any Confidential Information which is not: already known to the other Party or already in the public domain (other than as a result of breach of the terms of this AGREEMENT) shall, unless otherwise agreed in writing, be kept confidential and shall not be used, sold, traded, published or otherwise disclosed to any third party in any manner whatsoever other than for the purpose connected with this AGREEMENT.

The Confidential Information, which either Party receives from the other, may be disclosed by such Party:

i) to any person who is a legal counsel, employee, director or an affiliate or the affiliate’s employees and directors provided that the Party making such disclosure shall procure that such persons are informed of the confidential nature of such information and are bound by confidential obligations not less stringent than those assumed by the Party hereunder;

ii) to any court, legislative body, administrative or panel of inquiry, rule or regulation, or by any governmental authority, or any of a recognized stock exchange provided, that in any such case only such confidential information as such Party has a legitimate business need to know shall be disclosed and such Party making the disclosure shall promptly notify the other Party so that an appropriate protective order and/or other action can be taken if possible.
The foregoing obligations with regard to Confidential Information shall remain in effect for five (5) years after the termination or expiration of this AGREEMENT.

ARTICLE 14
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14.1 Non Waiver
Waiver of any breach or non-enforcement of any obligation by either Party shall not be deemed as waiver of any antecedent or subsequent or continuing breach of such provision or of the breach of any other provision of this AGREEMENT. Any waiver shall be made in writing by the relevant Party.

14.2 Disclaimer of Agency
This AGREEMENT does not constitute either Party as the trustee, broker, agent, partner or legal representative of the other Party for any purposes whatsoever, and neither Party shall have any express or implied right or authority to commit or bind the other Party to or to assume or to create or authorise the creation of any obligation or responsibility on behalf of or in the name of the other Party.

14.3 Entire AGREEMENT
This AGREEMENT together with the Exchange Contract (Appendix I attached hereto), shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties, and supersedes all other prior agreements and representations (innocent or negligent), written or oral, made by the Parties or their respective representatives relating to the subject matter hereof. Anything which is not contained or expressly incorporated by reference in this AGREEMENT and the Appendix I shall not become part of this AGREEMENT.

14.4 No Third Party Rights

The Parties hereby agree that terms of this AGREEMENT shall not be enforceable by any person who is not a party to this AGREEMENT (a "Third Party"), and no such person shall have any rights under this AGREEMENT no right of either Party to agree any amendment, variation, waiver or settlement under or arising from or in respect of this AGREEMENT, or to rescind or terminate this AGREEMENT, shall be subject to the consent of any Third Party.

14.5 Other Documents

(i) Power of attorney from DUKE in favour of TALEVERAS

(ii) The Parties herein may put in place such other documentations that the Parties deem appropriate, fit and necessary to give full effect to the provisions of this AGREEMENT.
